Dear Brother Zuck:

I have been extremely well pleased with your new publications for local ministers relating to Christian education. I am convinced that these publications fill a very definite need for men working with local congregations.

The selections, thus far, have been excellent; and the material presented stimulating and profitable.

This is an excellent example of what an organization like yours can do in serving the actual needs it proposes to notice. I believe that Scripture Press Foundation will profit from this service you are rendering.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
